Voted as "Best Cocktail Server" by the Las Vegas Review Journal's "Best of Las Vegas" four years in a row, the Bevertainers at Rio-All Suite Hotel & Casino are sexier than ever with brand new attire sure to tantalize the senses.

The new costume was designed by Meg DeAgostini, wardrobe supervisor for Dick Foster Productions, to create immediate sex appeal. The lace material sprinkled with black diamond stones teases the eye by revealing a little skin and exuding elegance. Complimented with black suede shoes, the female Bevertainer captures the essence of glamour and class. Each individual's style and appearance allows for their personalities to shine in their new attire.

More than 100 Bevertainers add to the energy and excitement of Rio's gaming experience with special female and male cocktail servers who provide a high level of beverage service and also sing current tunes and dance to hot choreography at any of the 10 mini stages throughout the property. Each Bevertainer performs a 90-second live number once an hour—so at any one visit to the Rio, casino customers may enjoy a variety of free performances every 10 minutes!

Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino is a Harrah's Entertainment resort. Rio offers guests a unique all suite hotel experience. Complete with 2,563 all suite hotel rooms, the property overlooks the famous Las Vegas Strip, one block west on Flamingo Road. The Rio is the home of Vegas' most popular free show – Masquerade Show in the Sky performing nightly. A sand beach surrounds the edge of the Rio's tropical lagoon, complete with waterfalls, four nautical-shaped swimming pools, and five Jacuzzi-style spas. The Rio boasts 16 dining outlets, 2 showroom/ 3 lounges, 2 performance theatres (Penn & Teller Theater and the Chippendales Theater), Spa/Health Club/Steam Room/ Beauty Salon, 23 retail outlets, 5 swimming pools, 9 luxury Palazzo Suites and 3 nightclubs.
